by Plank Town, the Springfield Library Foundation, and Willamalane*

The monthly film and discussion event, Plank Town Presents: Springfilm *Made in Oregon continues this October with One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Through August 2017, Springfilm features a monthly free screening of a film that was made in Oregon. The Springfield Library Foundation and Willamalane Park & Recreation District are also partners in this free monthly community event.

Please join us at the Wildish Theater on Thursday, October 6, at 6:30pm for a screening of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Arrive at the theater a few minutes early to look at a traveling exhibit about the making of the film from the Oregon State Hospital Museum of Mental Health. Join us for a short after film discussion led by Megan Lallier-Barron of the Oregon State Hospital Museum of Mental Health. World Mental Health Day is October 10th.

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest was filmed in the Oregon State Hospital in Salem, Oregon and is based on Ken Kesey's 1962 bestselling novel. Jack Nicholson plays a criminal who pleads insanity after getting into trouble again and once in the mental institution rebels against the oppressive nurse while rallying the scared patients. It was the first film since "It Happened One Night" (1934) to win all five of the top Academy Awards, for best picture, actor (Nicholson), actress (Louise Fletcher), director (Milos Forman) and screenplay (Lawrence Hauben and Bo Goldman) in 1976. Starring Jack Nicholson, Louise Fletcher, and Michael Berryman; directed by Milos Forman; 133 minutes; 1975.

The movie and discussion are free to attend. The ongoing film series is presented by Plank Town Restaurant and Brewery and coordinated by a partnership with the Springfield Library and Willamalane Park & Recreation District.

Springfilm: Made in Oregon will continue on November 10, at 6:30pm with The Goonies.
