Downtown Planning Citizen Advisory Committee Meeting

The next City of Springfield Downtown Citizen Advisory Committee (CAC) will be held 5:30-7 p.m. on Thursday, November 9 in the Jesse Maine Room in Springfield City Hall at 225 Fifth Street. The Downtown Citizen Advisory Committee meetings are open to the community. Downtown Design Standards will be discussed. The City is developing design standards for Downtown to increase its overall image, attractiveness and economic vitality.

What: Springfield's Downtown Citizen Advisory Committee (CAC) meeting

Who: Residents, Springfield business and property owners

When: 5:30-7 p.m., Thursday, November 9

Where: Jesse Maine Room in City Hall at 225 Fifth Street in Springfield

Background:

The Downtown Citizen Advisory Committee is charged with providing input, advice and recommendations on Downtown planning initiatives. Projects include short term revitalization efforts and long term policy updates to implement the vision for Downtown's future, guided by the Downtown District Urban Design Plan and Implementation Strategy adopted by the Springfield City Council in 2010. Currently the Downtown Citizen Advisory Committee is providing input on Downtown Design Standards. The committee plays an important role in the City's Citizen Involvement Plan to ensure that meaningful community involvement is part of the planning process.
