Free Movie Day

A teen program at Springfield Public Library

Come see the award winning, independent film Dave Made a Maze written and directed by Bill Watterson. Dave, a frustrated artist who has yet to accomplish anything significant in his career, builds a fort out of cardboard boxes in his living room, only to wind up trapped by the fantastical pitfalls and critters of his own creation. Teens join us at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, December 19, 2017 in the Library Meeting Room at Springfield Public Library. Free popcorn and snacks will be provided. This movie is rated TV-14.
