SPRINGFILM AT THE WILDISH THEATER

A FREE monthly film & discussion program in downtown Springfield will show the documentary, The Kid Stays in the Picture

The monthly film and discussion series, SpringFILM, will screen its next documentary at the Wildish Theater on Wednesday, February 5, 2014 at 6pm. The featured film is The Kid Stays in the Picture, about Robert Evans who became a Hollywood head honcho at 24 years old and produced some of the biggest films ever, such as The Godfather and Chinatown. He lived large and lost it all, only to rise again; a documentary about an inimitable showman. Directed by Nanette Burstein and Brett Morgen; rate R; 93 minutes; 2002.

The program is free to attend and coordinated by a partnership among the Springfield Library, the Springfield Museum and Willamalane Park and Recreation District.

Documentaries are the focus of the series. Upcoming SpringFILM screenings are: Dark Days, Wednesday, March 19, 2014 and New York Doll, Wednesday, April 23, 2014.
