June's City Hall Gallery highlights the work of award winning artist JoAnn Chartier. Chartier is an accomplished painter, sculptor, printmaker and published writer. A lifelong artist, Chartier won her first blue ribbon with an oil painting at age 12 and went on to study art at California State University Sacramento. She has been exhibiting her art over the past 20 years. In addition to her show at Springfield City Hall's Gallery this June, Chartier also has work on display at the Dragonfire Gallery in Cannon Beach and a show scheduled for September at the New KB Contemporary Gallery and Print Lab Project in Florence.
