Main-McVay Transit Study Stakeholder Advisory Committee Meeting

The Main-McVay Transit Study Stakeholder Advisory Committee will hold its next meeting Tuesday, July 29 from 3:00 to 5:00 PM. The meeting will focus on initial design considerations for a range of future corridor transit options. Meetings are open to the public and written comments are accepted during the meeting or afterwards at <http://ourmainstreetspringfield.org/>.

Upon further consideration the additional opportunities to view and provide written comment will be rescheduled for a future date(s). The initial design considerations are very preliminary and numerous. As part of the Stakeholder Advisory Committee charge, design considerations will be discussed and more focused in upcoming meetings.

Background: The City of Springfield in partnership with Lane Transit District convened the Stakeholder Advisory Committee to explore transit options that address and enhance all modes of travel along the Main Street-McVay Highway Corridor.

The Stakeholder Advisory Committee is an advisory body to the Governance Team for the Main-McVay Transit Study. The overall goal of the Main-McVay Transit Study is to analyze the need, technical viability, and public support for potential Main Street-McVay Highway transit improvements.

What: Springfield's Main-McVay Transit Study Stakeholder Advisory Committee

Who: Springfield residents, and business and property owners.

When: July 29 from 3:00 to 5:00 PM.

Where: Springfield Justice Center, 230 Fourth Street in Springfield
