Springfield Library Events October 6-11

Read Down Your Fines
at the Springfield Public Library

Read for fun and money at the Springfield Public Library! Kids and teens, ages 6 and up who have a junior library card, can read to reduce their overdue fines. Come into the library; check in at the Children's or Adult Reference Desk to get started. For every half hour you read in the library, we will take one dollar off of your library fines. You can "earn" up to $10.00 off of your library card.

What: Read Down Your Fines

When: October 6-11, 2014, during open hours

Where: The Springfield Public Library

Additional Information: wheremindsgrow.org/teens.html or contact LuCinda Gustavson at 541.726.2287

Tween Scene at the Springfield Public Library
Minute to Win It

How fast can you spin, juggle, stack, sort, hop, string, build, throw and whatever? You only have a minute. Can you beat the challenge? It's free and all supplies will be provided. Kids, ages 9-13, are invited to drop-in, hang-out, be creative and have a snack.

The Library offers a weekly gathering for tweens and/or teens every Monday at 4:00. Tween scene is generally held on the first Monday.

What: Tween Scene, monthly program

When: Monday, October 6, 2014, 4:00-5:00 pm

Where: The Springfield Public Library

DRAGON THEATER PUPPETS: KINTARO

All are welcome to come and enjoy this beautiful puppet production!

Children and their families are invited to join us on Thursday, October 9th at 10:30 in the morning to enjoy a fantastic puppet show from the Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art. Their story of Kintaro is a traditional, Japanese tale of heroism and can be appreciated by young and old alike. Join us!

What: Puppet Show: Kintaro

SATURDAY STORYTIME @ the LIBRARY

I'm not scary; I'm just different!

Children of all ages are invited to bring their families and join us on Saturday, October 11th at 10:00am for a twist on the traditional "scary storytime" for October. Together we'll see how being unique doesn't mean you're scary, even if you are a big blue monster!

What: Saturday Storytime

When: Saturday, October 11th 2014, 10:00am

Where: Springfield Public Library Window Corner

Additional Information: wheremindsgrow.org/teens.html or contact Taylor Worley (541)-726-2243

FAMILY MOVIE MATINEE @ the LIBRARY

AIEEEE! Witches have invaded the library!

Children, tweens, and their families are invited to join us on Saturday, October 11th at 3:00pm for our showing of a Roald Dahl inspired classic film in the spirit of the Halloween season. The PG rated film is a terrifying adventure through the eyes of a rather unique mouse. What happens when a whole lot of witches get together for their annual meeting? Well, you'll just have to come and check it out.

What: Family Movie Matinee

When: Saturday, October 11th 2014 at 3:00pm

Where: Springfield Public Library Meeting Room
