LIBRARY TO HOST
“APRONS: MEMORIES FROM THE PAST”

The Springfield Public Library Adult Services Department is pleased to welcome folk art historian Bobbe Schafer who will present a program titled, “Aprons: Memories from the Past” on Saturday, May 12th at 1 p.m. in the Library Meeting Room at Springfield City Hall, 225 5th St.

Ms. Schafer has been an interpretive naturalist, a librarian, and a designer and creator of aprons. Using slides of vintage apron styles as well as her own collection of historical aprons, Ms. Schafer brings the history of this most familiar household garment to life, and presents a unique perspective on women’s historical roles, fashion trends, and twentieth-century American culture.

The program is free and open to the public. For more information, please call 726-2234.
