LIBRARY OFFERS TEEN JEWELRY MAKING CLASS

Teens are invited to create a bracelet in free class

The Springfield Public Library will offer free art fun for 6th-12th graders this summer on Tuesday, August 7 from 3:30-5 p.m.

Young adults will have an opportunity to create beads and string together their own bracelet. The materials used will be beaded chain, paper, and wooden beads.

The project will take place in the Library Meeting Room. The Oregon Library Association is a generous sponsor of this event.
