BOOK MARK CONTEST WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Student winners will be honored by Mayor Leiken at the Nov. 19 City Council Meeting

The winners of the Springfield Library's 2007 Book Mark Contest have been announced. 600 young artists from kindergarten through middle school entered the contest to create designs about books, reading or libraries. The winners will be recognized by Mayor Leiken at City Council, on Monday, November 19th, 7:00pm, in Council Chambers. The winners' bookmarks have been professionally printed and will be available to library customers.

The elementary school bookmark contests winners are Sarah Beck, kindergarten, Brattain Elementary; Amy Rose, first grade, Ridgeview Elementary; Linda Pham, second grade, Centennial Elementary; Braiden Gheen, third grade, Walterville Elementary; Mason Zmolek, fourth grade, Mt. Vernon Elementary; and Monica Wilson, fifth grade, Brattain Elementary.

The middle school winners are Stevie Bristow, Goshen School and Megan Bernatzki, Briggs Middle School.

The contest is in celebration of Children's Book Week, November 12-18, which is celebrated in schools, libraries and book stores.
