WHY I LOVE MY LIBRARY CONTEST OFFERED AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

All ages are eligible to enter and win.

Tell the Springfield Public Library why you love your library, and you could be a winner. Everyone who participates will be entered in a drawing for prizes for children, teens and adults. Entries are due by 5:00 pm, February 5. The library will display all entries through March. The library will accept poems, essays, or stories of 100 words or less and artwork. All ages, children, teens and adults may enter, and all types of creativity are encouraged. Entry forms are available at the library or at the library's website: wheremindsgrow.org.
