SUMMER BOOK CLUB AT THE SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY

Kids will discuss OBOB 2012 book Charlotte's Web, by E. B. White

The OBOB Book Club will discuss Charlotte's Web, by E. B. White, on Thursday, July 28, at 2:00 pm, at the Springfield Public Library. Students entering grades 3-5 may participate. Students should read the book before the meeting in order to be ready to discuss it.

Charlotte's Web, tells the story of a young pig named Wilbur who befriends a spider named Charlotte. Wilbur is devastated to learn of his expected destiny as a farm pig, and Charlotte becomes determined to save his life. The book is one of the Oregon Battle of the Books for 2012.

The library is offering a series of OBOB Book Clubs this summer. Each meeting focuses on a different book from the 2012 OBOB list. Springfield librarian and seasoned OBOB coach, Susan Mondon, guides the discussions.

Registration for the OBOB Book Club meetings is available at the Youth Services Desk. The programs are part of the library's Summer Reading program. The programs are free, and are sponsored by the Springfield Library Foundation.

Complete summer program information is available at the library, or at wheremindsgrow.org/programskids.html.
