

Current Library Advisory Board Member Bios 2022

- Name: Kristine Fuller
- Board role and term(s): Board member until December 2023
- Professional role/title: Self-employed
- Professional affiliation: Etsy, Wag!, Airbnb
- About me: I am a mother of four busy boys, living in Springfield for the past 15 years. I have many interests and hobbies, some of which I have turned into small side-gigs: pet care, sewing, and managing a local Airbnb. I enjoy reading, especially historical fiction, and any day which includes a visit to the library is a very good day!

- Name: Heather Millehrer-Huerta
- Board Role & Term(s): Board Member since 2020, term ends 2024, Board Vice-Chair for 2022
- Professional Role/Title: Parent // Homeschooling Parent // Employed as a Social Studies Curriculum Guide in the Lowell School District
- Professional Affiliation: Affiliated with TeachNW (public homeschool based in Marcola), Bridge (public homeschool based in Lowell) & Comunidad y Herencia Cultural // Noche Cultural (non-profit serving, advocating with, & representing the local Latinx community)
- About: Heather has lived in Springfield since 2010. Having grown up in Oregon, then moved away for a time, she now considers this home. She has enjoyed & appreciated the Springfield Public Library ever since moving here. After beginning a family she grew to appreciate it even more. Her boys are regular fixtures at the library & know most of the librarians by name. As a community organizer Heather has participated with organizations that have partnered with the library & volunteered directly with the library as well during community outreach events. She sees the library & what it symbolizes as core to what it means to be in community here in Springfield.

Current Library Advisory Board Member Bios 2022

- Favorite Book: She cannot choose just one. As a child she loved The Pushcart Wars & The Westing Game. When she's stressed & needs an easy reread she turns to the Carlotta Carlyle mystery series. A book she recommends that everyone try is Let's Pretend Nothing Happened by Jenny Lawson because it's a gateway memoir & she loves memoirs & wishes more people would discover them as well.

- Name: Ralene Linneman
 - Board role and terms: Board Chair, 2022. Served on the board since December 2017. Term ends 2024.
 - Professional role/title: Retired librarian. Worked as a school librarian in Illinois and a public librarian in Ohio. Last position was a reference librarian at Westlake Porter Public Library near Cleveland.
 - Personal: Ralene retired and moved from Avon Lake, OH to Springfield in 2012 to be closer to family. She is an active person who enjoys bicycling and tennis. She has been an avid library user everywhere she has lived which includes Illinois, Ohio, Oregon and Belgium.
 - Favorite Book: The Inner Game of Tennis by Timothy Gallwey
-
- Name: Robyn Loudon

Current Library Advisory Board Member Bios 2022

- Name: Linda Mears
- Board role: Member since 2016 – (Past Board Chair 2018-2020) current term ends 2024
- Professional role: Communications Director
Employer: Northwest Community Credit Union
- About Me: Linda grew up in Portland and enjoyed the Multnomah County Library system. Both her family and schooling provided her with conviction that libraries are, like schools, an investment in creating a learned society, one that plays an important role in supporting every citizen, whether they make use of library services, or not. She has been a Springfield Library patron since 1975.
- The Gift: Creativity and the Artist in the Modern World

- Name: Angela C. Miceli Stout
- Board role and term(s): Vice Chair, 2019-2023
- Professional role/title: Marriage and Family Life Coordinator
- Professional affiliation (i.e. org/biz they work for): St. Alice Catholic Church
- 1-2 sentences describing them: Angela holds a Ph.D. in political philosophy and works in ministry at her parish in Springfield, Oregon. She is a wife and mother of three young children and enjoys spending time with family, working in her garden, homeschooling her kids, hosting family and friends at her home.

Current Library Advisory Board Member Bios 2022

- Name: Clyde Miller
- Board Role and term(s): Board Member 1st Term. Term ends 2022.
- Professional role/title: Chief Trivia Jockey / Chief Operating Officer
- Professional affiliation: Quality Trivia, Partnered Solutions IT, and Ruby Porter Marketing and Design. Board member on the Community Website Partnership.
- About: Clyde is a former adjunct professor of composition and creative writing, a former helpdesk supervisor and project manager/sysadmin that loves his dogs, wordplay, house projects, gardening, and various sports. He is a published author, musician, and gallery-shown artist. He finds the most joy at the intersection of technology, education, and team-building.

- Name: Carolyn Rebbert
- Board Role and Term: Board Member, Term 1- ends Dec 2023
- Personal Profile: Rebbert is a geologist with experience as a museum scientist, curator, educator and director. She has also been self-employed as a science content editor for primarily children's books. She is in a GIS certificate program, and worked as a GIS Tech with the US Forest Service. Rebbert serves on the Mount Pisgah Arboretum Education Committee. She holds a sUAS pilot certificate.