ACTION REQUESTED: Interview three applicants for the Library Advisory Board (LAB) for three open positions and decide on appointments.ISSUE STATEMENT: The Library Advisory Board will have three vacant positions as of December 31, 2022, due to the early resignations of Board members Barbara von Diether and Kristine Fuller, and the expiration of Board member Clyde Miller's term on December 31, 2022. There are three years remaining on the term vacated by Ms. Von Diether, two years remaining on the term vacated by Ms. Fuller, and then a full four-year term open. Five applications were received for the three openings. One applicant was not available to interview at the designated meeting, the other attended a Board meeting and decided the LAB was not a good fit for them. ATT 5: Interview Schedule and Questions

DISCUSSION/
FINANCIAL
IMPACT: The Library Advisory Board is seeking members for three vacant seats. In April 2022, Board member Barbara von Diether resigned from the LAB. This opened a position on the Board for a term ending December 31, 2025. Board member Kristine Fuller, after serving on the Board since 2015, decided to step down this year. This opened a term that will end December 31, 2024. Board Member Clyde Miller's Board term will end on December 31, 2022; this will open a full-term Board position that will end December 31, 2026. Applications for the LAB were closed on October 17, 2022. Five applications were received during that time; three applicants are presenting themselves for interviews. They are Susan Bogenschild, Myra Breen, and Rebekah Weed.

The Library Advisory Board asks that the Council interview the three applicants and appoint one person to complete the three years left on Ms. Von Diether's tenure ending December 31, 2025, one person to complete the two year term left on Ms. Fuller's tenure ending December 31, 2024, and one person to fill the four year term ending December 31, 2026.

Application for a City of Springfield Citizen Advisory Board/Commission/Committee

Please print or type:

1. What experiences / training / qualifications do you have for this particular board / commission / committee?

My professional career (resume attached) is remarkably varied! I spent 20 years in the nonprofit fundraising field (National Public Radio, Princeton University, and Kent State University), several years as a preschool teacher and as a special education assistant. I have also worked in retail settings (Trader Joe's and Duluth Trading).

2. What specific contribution do you hope to make?

I hope to bring a broad perspective to the table that could enrich both library patrons and staff.

3. Briefly describe your involvement in relevant community groups and activities. (Lack of previous involvement will not necessarily disqualify you from consideration.)

I haven't been active locally since moving to Oregon. I have been busy, until this year, caring for an elderly relative. While living in the Nashville area I volunteered to shelve books in the Brentwood Public Library in both the children's and general collections. While my (now adult) kids were young I chaired the PTO and created and after school program for their elementary school (10 classes: piano, soccer, art, etc.)

4. What community topics concern you that relate to this board / commission / committee? Why do you want to become a member?

The Springfield Public Library has been a welcoming presence to me. I would like to see the library enjoy wider visibility and prominence in Springfield as the city continues to blossom.

5. Most boards / commissions / committees meet monthly. Subcommittees may meet more frequently. Meetings generally last one and one-half hours. It is highly recommended you attend a meeting before submitting the application. Please read the news release for this position which contains the normal dates and times for these meetings and can be found at

ITEM TITLE: HISTORIC COMMISSION APPLICANT INTERVIEWS

ACTIONREQUESTED: Interview three applicants to fill three vacancies on the Historic Commission.

ISSUESTATEMENT: There are three vacancies on the nine-member Historic Commission because of two additional seats added in January of this year and the expiration of Jenna Fribley's term on November 19, 2022. The recruitment for these vacancies opened on August 1, 2022 and closed on October 17, 2022. The city received three applications from Adam Howard, Rebekah Weed, and Celine Swenson-Harris.

ATTACHMENTS: ATT 1: Adam Howard Application
ATT 2: Rebekah Weed Application
ATT 3: Celine Swenson-Harris Application
ATT 4: Historic Commission Roster
ATT 5: Interview Schedule and Questions

DISCUSSION/
IMPACT:

The Historic Commission has had two vacancies since January of this year as the new code expanded the 7-person commission to a 9-person commission. In addition, Jenna Fribley has completed her term. The city received three candidate applications from Adam Howard, Rebekah Weed, and Celine Swenson-Harris.

Qualifications for membership on the Historic Commission include expertise in the fields of architecture, history, architectural history, planning, or archeology; residency within the Metro Plan boundaries; or as residents, electors, or property owners within Springfield.

State and Federal funding of the City's historic preservation activities stipulate that a majority of the Commissioners have professional qualifications in a field related to historic preservation. The current composition of the Historic Commission satisfies this requirement and two of the three applicants also meet this requirement.

Springfield Municipal Code Section 2.506 states that any vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term of the member creating the vacancy, and Section 2.504 states that appointed members shall hold office for four years with the terms staggered to provide overlapping and continuity. Council could fill each of the three vacancies with members serving a four year term which would continue to result in staggered terms that would provide the overlapping and continuity desired.
