Appeal Application Process

1. Applicant Submits an Appeal Application to the Development & Public Works Department

- The application must conform to the Appeal Submittal Requirements Checklist on page 3 of this application packet.
- Planning Division staff screen the submittal at the front counter to determine whether all required items listed in the Appeal Submittal Requirements Checklist have been submitted.
- Applications missing required items will not be accepted for submittal.

2. City Staff Conduct Detailed Completeness Check

- Planning Division staff conducts a detailed completeness check within 30 days of submittal.
- The assigned Planner notifies the applicant in writing regarding the completeness of the application.
- An application is not be deemed technically complete until all information necessary to evaluate the proposed development, its impacts, and its compliance with the provisions of the Springfield Development Code and other applicable codes and statutes have been provided.
- Incomplete applications, as well as insufficient or unclear data, will delay the application review process.

3. Planning Commission or City Council Review the Application, Hold a Public Hearing, and Issue a Decision

- These are Type III or Type IV decisions and thus are made after a public hearing.
- A notice is posted in the newspaper, and notice is mailed to property owners and occupants within 300 feet of the property being reviewed and to any applicable neighborhood association. In addition, the applicant must post one sign, provided by the City, on the subject property.
- Written comments may be submitted to the Development & Public Works Department through the day of the public hearing or comments may be provided in person during the public hearing.
- After a public hearing, the Planning Commission or City Council issues a decision that addresses all applicable approval criteria and/or development standards, as well as any written or oral testimony.
- Applications may be approved, approved with conditions, or denied.
- The City mails the applicant and any party of standing a copy of the decision, which is effective on the day it is mailed.
- The decision issued is the final decision of the City but the Planning Commission's decision may be appealed within 15 calendar days to the City Council, and the City Council's decision may be appealed within 21 calendar days to the Land Use Board of Appeals.

Appeal Submittal Requirements Checklist

- Application Fee – refer to the Development Code Fee Schedule for the appropriate fee calculation formula. A copy of the fee schedule is available at the Development & Public Works Department. The applicable application, technology, and postage fees are collected at the time of complete application submittal.
- Appeal Application Form
- Narrative explaining each appeal issue listed on the application form in more detail. This statement should indicate where you feel the Director, Historic Commission, or Planning Commission erred in the decision based upon the evidence presented and in applying that evidence to the criteria used to evaluate the request. Be sure to make this statement as complete as possible.

NOTE: Appeals of a Director's or Historic Commission decision will be reviewed de novo by the Planning Commission or Hearings Official. They shall consider all physical and documentary evidence submitted to the Director or Historic Commission as part of the original application, as well as any new evidence or testimony which the opponents or proponents may wish to present at the public hearing.

Appeals of a Planning Commission decision will be reviewed by City Council and will be based upon the record of proceeding. They shall consider all physical and documentary evidence submitted to the Director or Historic Commission as part of the original application and any evidence or testimony presented to the Planning Commission.
